

Snohomish County Human Services

Open Recruitment

The Partnership to End Homelessness was established in February 2014 to oversee community planning around issues of homelessness and poverty. The board brings together a diverse group of stakeholders to develop solutions, alleviate the effects of poverty and make Snohomish County a place where all residents have opportunities to participate in a flourishing environment.

The board aims to have representation for the stakeholder groups outlined below.

Stakeholder Groups
Adults without Children	Advocates (Homeless Policy Task Force Representative)
Affordable Housing Development	Business
Chemical Dependency	Chronically Homeless
Disabilities	Education (Early Childhood)
Employment/Training	Employment (Supported)
Faith Based Organizations	City of Everett (Government)
Snohomish County (Government)	Healthcare
HIV/AIDS Issues	Homeless Families
Hospital	Law Enforcement
Legal	Mental Health Agencies
Non-Profit Homeless Assistance Provider	Personal Homeless Experience
Public Housing Authority	Refugee/Immigrant
School District	Senior Issues
Social Services Provider CSO	Social Services Provider -Children's Administration
Transportation	University
Veterans, Organizations which serve	Victim Service Provider
Youth Issues

The following positions are currently open until filled:

- Business
- Children's Administration
- Senior Issues
- Refugee/Immigrant

Additional information can be found at <http://snohomishcountywa.gov/2191/PEH-CoC-Board>. Interested parties should complete the application/nomination form and return it to Emily Grossman, Human Services Specialist II with Office of Community and Homeless Services at emily.grossman@snoco.org. Applicants may include a resume if they wish. Questions may be sent via email or directed to 425.388.7265.